a. Manitoba GRO Grant – Daycare Walking Path and Crosswalk

Res #274-26 WHEREAS the Town of Carberry recognizes the importance of providing safe, accessible, and connected pedestrian infrastructure for residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS the construction of a new asphalt walking path along Stickle Avenue between Dufferin Street and Main Street will improve connectivity between existing residential areas, the Town's recreation area, and the future daycare facility; and

WHEREAS the project also includes the installation of two pedestrian-activated warning beacons to enhance pedestrian safety at key crossing locations and support active transportation within the community; and

WHEREAS the project aligns with the Town of Carberry's Asset Management Plan and supports the continued development of safe, accessible, and sustainable municipal infrastructure;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT Council authorize the submission of an application to the Manitoba Growth, Renewal and Opportunities (Manitoba GRO) Program for funding assistance for the Stickle Avenue Walking Path and Pedestrian Safety Improvement Project; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT Council commit to providing the municipal share of project funding should the application be approved.
